Greetings.

I'm LKER on eBay. I sent you an additional stick with your first auction that you won.

If you're not comfortable with dealing outside of eBay I understand...If you're ok with that, I'll send you and additional 2 modules, so you'll have a total of 4.

I wish there was a way to deal with repeat buyers, when I look at all the fees and charges eBay tacks on, it barely makes it worthwhile, and you end up getting a 1099 to boot :(

Is $100 fair for the 3 sticks?

You can use paypal to LKER1234@yahoo.com

Here's the tracking info. It'll ship on Monday.

Can you confirm that the transaction is settled, because there are items that I am still bidding (but outbid currently), and I want confirmation that I should abandon those auctions.
